

FEEL THE POWER OF THE DORK SIDE

“Dr. Pete’s one-man show is part stand-up, part statistics, part song and all incredibly smart.”

The New Orleans, LA Defender, 2011

“I have never been so entertained by a power point presentation (or comedic performance for that matter)...“

Bill Hesse, MIT Ph.D. Student, 2013

A hilarious & educational look at science & technology and their practitioners by Dr. Pete, the World’s only chemical engineering professor by day and stand-up comedian by night. When not teaching or doing research, Pete hosts a weekly radio show on science and technology (www.insidetheblackbox.org) whose motto is "Science, only funnier, and a podcast on the intersection of science and the humanities (www.peteandcharlie.tumblr.com).
