

October Section Meeting: Tour of Scott Bioengineering Building at Colorado State University (CSU)

Please join us at CSU in Fort Collins for a tour, dinner, poster session, and presentation hosted by the CSU student chapter of AIChE. CSU Students will receive a free dinner and should RSVP through Briana Chamberlain at bchamber@rams.colostate.edu. Non-CSU students and AIChE members may RSVP through the Rocky Mountain chapter of AIChE.

Please park in the Lory Student Center Parking Lot. The Scott building is located just North West of the LSC parking lot. Here is a link to a parking map:

<http://parking.colostate.edu/maps/mapside.pdf>

You will be turning South at the intersection of Laurel St. and Meldrum St. into Lot 310. All of those spots will be free parking.

The Suzanne and Walter Scott, Jr. Bioengineering Building is a 122,000 square foot three story LEED® status building housing research laboratories, COE administration, faculty offices, a data center, auditorium, and design studios.
